

SENIGALLIA AND THE LANDS OF THE MARCA SENONE DESTINATION WEDDING

Come and get married in Senigallia and in the Marca Senone lands, between the embrace of the Adriatic Sea and the rolling hills, in a land rich in history and breathtaking landscapes, valuable cultural sites just waiting to be discovered, to offer a timeless charm to bridal couples wishing to get married in our splendid territory...

An area that surprises and excites with its medieval villages steeped in beauty and spirituality, its golden sandy coastline caressed by the sea, and its extraordinary quality of food and local products. Qualities that pamper the bride and groom and accompany their guests in a complete sensorial experience. Not just a wedding, but a real stay in the Terre della Marca Senone. We do not just offer a wedding day, but a real experience to discover our territory.

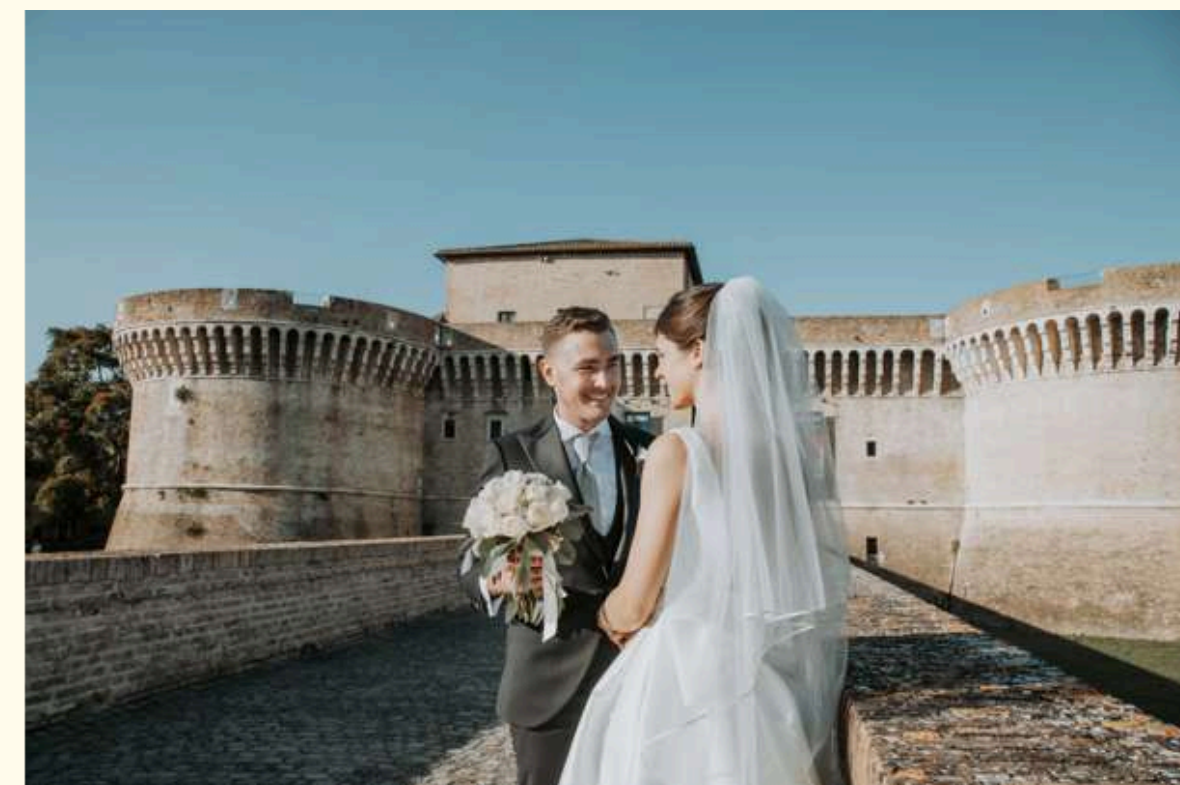

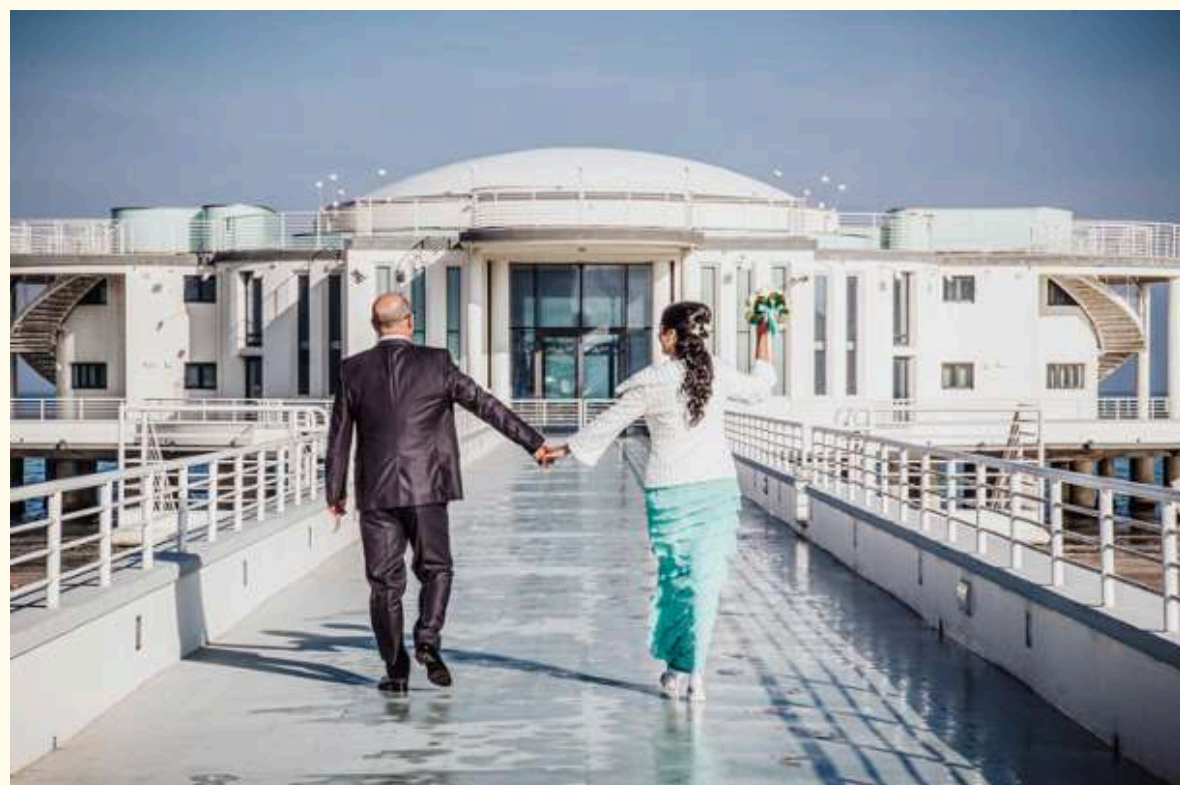

In the days before the wedding or after the event, for example, you only need to travel for a few kilometres from the historic centre of Senigallia and the Riviera to encounter numerous wine cellars where you can taste local wine and wander through the landscapes with delicate, captivating colours.

A good glass of Verdicchio or a taste of Lacrima di Morro d'Alba surrounded by the Marche countryside will enchant you.

We try to involve local businesses and craftsmen to enrich the details of your Italian wedding...

Come and get married in Senigallia at the city's most iconic symbol: La Rotonda a Mare, an example of early 20th century architecture that joins the sea to the velvet beach or enter the historic centre in the fascinating Foro annonario, to continue to the 15th century Palazzetto Baviera, with its magical cloister and finally to the impressive Rocca Roveresca in the heart of the city...

Come and get married in one of the marvellous medieval castles rich in history and perfectly preserved or in one of the villages of the Terre della Marca Senone in the hinterland of Senigallia...
